

Leah Kozelek - Piano Instructor

Leah has been teaching private piano lessons in the La Crosse area since 2006. She received her Bachelor of Music degree in Performance with an emphasis in Piano Pedagogy from Viterbo University. During her time at Viterbo she tutored undergraduate students in piano proficiency, class piano, and theory courses. She has accompanied vocalists, instrumentalists and choral ensembles and is an active musician in her local church.

In addition, Leah is also an avid hammered dulcimer player and has enjoyed performing at numerous festivals, concerts and special events including performances in Bristol Cathedral and St. Martin in the Fields, London.

Leah is a member of the Wisconsin Music Teachers Association (WMTA) and Music Teachers National Association (MTNA). She facilitates a fun and enjoyable learning environment where students of all ages and abilities are encouraged and given the opportunity to reach their full potential.
