

Randy Lyden - Piano Instructor

Randy Lyden joined the Reed Music Studios in 1999. He received his Bachelor of Music degree from the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse, where he studied piano with Dallas Weekley and Nancy Arganbright and organ with Byron Blackmore. He received his Master of Music degree in organ performance from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, where he studied with John Chappell Stowe.

He performs regularly on the LaCrosse Lenten Organ Concert series and has been featured as piano soloist with the UW-LaCrosse and Wausau Symphony Orchestras. He has taught piano for eleven years and also serves as the Director of music and organist/pianist at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in LaCrosse.